

School Uniform

The purpose of the CLPS uniform is to present a positive image, minimize distraction, and provide an environment conducive to learning. CLPS adopted the official uniform in 2002.

All students are expected to maintain good grooming habits and appropriate dress. Items should be in good condition and should not be torn or have holes, even if that is the fashion of the day. Clothing should be neat, modest, and appropriate. Clothing should be appropriately sized – not too small and not too large.

Parents may purchase uniform items from any vendor but should ensure that the item matches the uniform guidelines listed here. If there are any questions about an item, please contact the front office. The school utilized Land's End as a vendor for the convenience of our families. Land's End often replaces articles as items are discontinued and replaces them without informing us. Please compare items that are available to the uniform requirements for the school. The school will make every effort to keep the Land's End site up to date.

A helpful note on sizing:

Parents should measure their students to see if the item fits. On the Land's End website they can click on "size chart" and then choose "item dimensions" to find garment length. Parents need to measure the front of their child from waist to knee and the back from waist to knee to know if the item is long enough.

The skirts labeled "at the knee" are 21" long and the below the knee are 24.5" long and can be tailored to the right length. The "below the knee" skirt is recommended for taller girls or with certain body types that can cause a discrepancy between the front length and back length. Boys should pay special attention to inseam lengths to ensure shorts reach mid-knee.

Parents and students have the primary responsibility to understand and adhere to the uniform rules and "Out of Uniform" dress code. Teachers submit a form to report incidents of students being out of uniform. A form letter is sent from the Dean of Students to inform students and parents of the issue. Families should remedy the uniform issue before the next school day. In all circumstances CLPS Administration retains the final authority to determine, in its discretion, whether a student is in compliance with the uniform.

If uniform or "out of uniform" dress code issues persist (see chart below), then a meeting will be called between the student and the Dean of Students (for male students) or a female Administrator (for female students). In these meetings with students Administrators will give a detailed review of all elements of the dress code and provide a paper copy to the student. After explaining the dress code expectations, they will answer any questions the student may have and discuss any efforts that may already be in the works to remedy the issue (for example, if another clothing item has been ordered but has not arrived) or if there are other issues the Administration needs to know. The goal of the meeting is to educate the student about the uniform, encourage the student and to remedy the uniform issue at the same time.

After the meeting between Admin and the student educating them about the details of the uniform, the responsibility for daily adherence remains with the student and parents. Additional reminders and warnings will not be issued. If any other notifications are submitted by faculty then another meeting will be held with the students, his/her parents and the Dean of Students. Students may face disciplinary action including suspension with or without an academic penalty. As with any behavioral issue, continual issues may incur further disciplinary action including expulsion.

Due to the one-on-one training that the student receives in meeting with the Administrator to learn the details of the dress code, reminders and notifications should not be necessary in a new semester. Therefore, the uniform record remains throughout enrollment in Middle School and High School at CLPS. The violations are not expunged with a new semester. If there has been significant time elapsed since the last uniform meeting, there may be additional training before disciplinary action is taken, but this is at the discretion of the Administration.

If you see someone wearing something, do not assume it is in the dress code. Students must wear CLPS uniform while attending any school activity and must follow “Out of Uniform” guidelines at all school-sponsored events unless otherwise notified.

Special school-sponsored events may have exceptions or extensions of the dress code that will be determined by the official CLPS employee in charge of the event. These may include more formal award ceremonies, society inductions or school performances. The CLPS Administration will again determine what is considered to be in compliance with the school dress code.

6th-12th Uniform Correction

Any staff member can notify admin about dress code issues using an official form.
The uniform record remains throughout enrollment in 6th-12th grades at CLPS. The violations are not expunged with a new semester.

Event	Action
1 and 2nd dress code violation	Dean of Students will email parents and student.
3rd dress code violation can be a combination of different issues	Student meeting with Dean of Students or Female Admin. Discussion in detail to educate the student about the details of the dress code. Student and Administrator will come to an agreement for next steps including further disciplinary steps. This may include a time frame to fix the issue or to report back. Because time has been taken to fully discuss the expectations, the responsibility moves fully into the parent and students' hands to check their own clothing before coming to school.
4th dress code violation	Student and Parent meeting with Dean of Students, suspension without Academic Penalty
6th dress code violation	Student and Parent meeting with Dean of Students, suspension with Academic Penalty
7th dress code violation	Student and Parent Meeting with the Head of School and Dean of Students with a possible expulsion for neglecting to comply.
